

The Institute for the Study of Christianity & Culture

Presents

Reconciling Human Origins and Religious Faith: Thoughts from a Christian Evolutionist

A talk by Peter Enns, Eastern University

Friday, October 23 at the MSU Union, Lake Huron Room
7 P.M. – 9 P.M.

Dr. Enns is a biblical scholar who teaches and writes on Old Testament, New Testament, Second Temple Judaism, and the intersection of biblical studies and contemporary Christian faith. He has taught extensively at the seminary and doctoral levels (Westminster Theological Seminary, Princeton Theological Seminary, Harvard Divinity School, Fuller Theological Seminary, Lutheran Theological Seminary in Philadelphia, Biblical Theological Seminary) and on the undergraduate level (Temple University and Messiah College). He speaks actively in academic and ecclesiastical venues on topics pertaining the Bible and Christian faith. He has written or edited over a dozen books and many articles and essays. He is also a leading blogger at Rethinking Biblical Christianity (Patheos).

For a complete details visit our website at:
<http://christianityandculture.org/>

The Institute for the Study of Christianity & Culture

2215 E. Michigan Ave.
Lansing, MI 48912

Phone (517) 485-5483
www.christianityandculture.org